HEAVEN ON EARTH.
Here's the time of mirth and laughter Not in some far-off hereafter; Here's the land of smilling faces, Not in strange and distant places, 779 Which perhaps we'll see tomorrow In a world where there's no sorrow-Here's the land where men are blest And where they achieve their best.

> Think you when you've passed death's portals To the realm of the immortals, That your soul shall wake to gladness If in life it found but sadness; If it saw on earth no beauty, But went blindly to its duty. Missing all that makes life fair, Will it see the glory there

Here is Heaven in the making Despite hearts that may be aching, And the cares that men are bearing, As the roads of life they're faring; Here are joys and merry laughter And the peace we want hereafter-We must learn to know them here, Not in some celestial sphere. Rise above your cares and sorrows!

Build on earth your glad tomorrows! Do not wait until life closes, Ere you stop to gather roses; Here, amid life's round of duty, Find its gladness and its beauty-Fit your soul for what awaits When at last Heaven swings its gates.

There is no question but that a man A lost opportunity is one of the very

COAT-DRESS FOR EARLY SPRING

One of the smartest and newest of street costumes for this spring is the coat-dress. The model photographed is of duvetyn, made in a belted princess style, with side panels of cartridge plaits mounted at the hip line. The gown fastens at the back with buttons the entire length. The neck is cut to a "V" with a line of the popular ring trimming down the front, and a short, narrow fur collar to relieve the plainness.

One by one they come and go.

Come to visit us a while;

Come to visit us a while;

Come to bring us some new sorr.

Here today and gone tomorrow.

When you think that one is true.

She has beat it P. D. Q.

One by one they come and go.

Ain't it so?

Summer, autumn, winter, spring.

MAIDENS:

(MAIDS)

One by one they come and go.

This, sebaceous, nimble, slow;

Every hue and every style.

Come to visit us a while;

Come to bring us some new sorr.

Here today and gone tomorrow.

When you think that one is true.

She has beat it P. D. Q.

One by one they come and go.

Ain't it so?

Summer, autumn, winter, spring.

Minnie, Mabel, Hilda Sue,

Bridget, Carrie, Lily, Lou.

Now and then a prize appears (Once in every hundred years) Come to bring us some new sorrow, When you think that one is true

Summer, autumn, winter, spring, (Once in every hundred years) But, alas, they never stay, Neighbors fure that kind away, Curse the friends who stoop to such We have never done it (much) It takes, an optimist to warm his But the good ones, they are few,

Ain't it true?

HERE'S THAT SO-CALLED
